By WALTER M. BARRETT

On Saturday, April 29, an Older Boys' and Girls' conference of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in Truckee. In a way, this should be one of the most important meetings ever held here. Not from a standpoint of business or entertainment nor even from any attempt to break an attendance record, but it involves one of our most valued assets—our future citizens, the boys and girls of our area and their welfare. Too little consideration in the past has been given the youths in development of outside recreational advantages, and while their home lives are perhaps equal or better than in larger centers, they have not enjoyed sufficient privilege of association in organized groups which are designed and maintained to promote better citizenship. Our experience with "Y" groups has shown a distinct benefit for boys and girls. Good, clean subjects of vital interest are discussed. Games intended to develop better minds and bodies are encouraged and the entire program, properly supervised, is pointed toward making better young men and women by inculcating a sense of true devotion to God, country and home. We hope the conference here proves an outstanding success.

Several weeks ago, or maybe it was months, we carried a story that the sanitary board was negotiating with property owners and officials in an effort to have some of the unsightly old structures, which dampen the appearance of our town, removed. The story probably made good reading and caused, no doubt, a stir of optimism in some quarters, but that apparently, is as far as the matter got. We have made efforts to learn what steps have been taken to bring the promised results, but no one seems to know anything about it other than it seemed a good idea at the time. The plan may have gone the way of the proposed incinerator, the change in the off-flow of the sewer system and other announced improvements, or it may still be in the formative stage and ready to go into action any time. We wouldn't know.

If only one of the eight objects of Public Schools Week, to be observed here starting April 24 under the sponsorship of the Truckee Masonic Lodge, is accomplished we will vote the week a huge success. That one item, No. 6 on the list certainly can be improved. It reads: "To develop intelligent cooperation between the school and community." In that short sentence is food for deep thought. When a program, be it educational or otherwise, is costing the community nearly $2,000 a month, the year through, to maintain, it should demand "intelligent cooperation" between school and community.

NEW LOW EXPRESS RATES ANNOUNCED BY LOCAL AGENT

A large reduction in package express rates is being announced this week by Agnet N. F. Dolley of the Railway Express Agency, effective April 15. A few of the examples of the low rates on first class, insured parcels will be found on another page of the Sierra Sun today.

In making the announcement, the local agent declared that for a long time it has been felt that express rates should be modernized. The new table of graduated rates and changes effective Saturday is the answer to that need, he declared.

These changes are designed to effect:

- 1.—A return to Railway Express service of package business directed to other channels in recent years.
- 2.—A more reasonable and equitable competitive position for the Railway Express.
- 4.—An increase in revenue and business for the agency and savings for the customers.
- 4.—A balanced express rate structure throughout for all weights and distances.

ACCEPTS POSITION

Mrs. Ida Rogers has accepted a position as clerk in the office of the Railway Express Agency, according to Agent N. F. Dolley. Office hours for the summer months were fixed for 8 to 12 and from 1 to 6 daily.

RETURNS HERE

Lyle Smith of the Lyle Smith Electric Service, has returned to Truckee from Applegate where he completed work on the new wing of the Weimar sanitarium. Mrs. Smith will remain in Applegate until Nini Mae and Tommy have their tonsils removed at the Highland hospital in Auburn and are able to return here.

Legion Working To Start Local Memorial Soon

Will Propose Less Expensive Structure To Permit Early Start

HAVE NEW PLAN READY

Ex-Soldiers Will Meet With Supervisors To Make Recommendation

The building committee of Truckee Post No. 439, American Legion, will go to Nevada City on May 2 to attend a meeting of the board of supervisors relative to the proposed construction of the new Veterans' Memorial building here.

Decision to recommend to the board a less expensive building than at first planned and eliminate further delay and expense to the taxpayers, was reached at meeting of the post Tuesday night.

The building committee went to Portola to inspect the $30,000 Veterans' Memorial there last Sunday and were impressed with the type of structure there and may ask that the building here be copied along the same lines.

It was definitely determined to include, if possible, a large auditorium, which if equipment is provided by other organizations or groups, can be used as a gymnasium. The plan to have a gymnasium to the exclusion of an auditorium was vetoed with a unanimous vote. While a gymnasium, of course, is desired by the Legion as well as others, it was pointed out, it would not be wise to exclude the auditorium space which it is hoped will result in assisting in financing the maintenance.

Present approved plans call for a building 75 by 100 feet to house a main room, 48 by 72 feet and a lodge room 24 by 44 on the main floor with a second lodge room, of approximately the same size with a large kitchen in the basement. A patio, balcony and other appointments will be determined later.

The building as planned now will cost approximately $30,000. Members of the building committee who reported Tuesday on the visit to Portola, were Chairman James McIver, Commander Charles Pierce H. O. Anderson and Jack Wolert.

Home Coming Week Discussed Here By Chamber Of Commerce

Plan Reception for Former Residents Who Will Visit Here

Plans for some sort of entertainment to be held here during Home Coming Week starting June 26 were discussed at a meeting of the local chamber of commerce on Monday.

It is anticipated that many of the former residents will return during the week to renew old acquaintances and it is the desire of the chamber to make the visit a pleasant one.

Although the firemen are staging a celebration on the Fourth of July to be started with a dance on Saturday evening, the week preceding the scheduled celebration has been set aside as Home Coming Week a unit of a unified celebration sponsored by the Golden Empire association in commemoration of centennial year.

William Englehart, Sr., was named to determine the nature of the program desired, but it was understood that nothing in the nature of a celebration will be undertaken.

The chamber also reiterated its original opinion opposing any change in the opening of the trout fishing season after a discussion on the matter, which has been the topic of controversy here for several weeks.

A letter from D. E. Kessler was read in which it was indicated that only 100,000 trout fry could be secured this year by the San Francisco Flycasting club for rearing. The general opinion of the members favored supporting that number if more can not be had.

Joe King, Gregory reported, has donated 12 lots on King's Beach for the one-room schoolhouse and residents of the district plan to make its construction a community project, contractors donating their time. Approval of the state officials is required for this procedure, Gregory said.

The new Brockway school district was created last month as a result of petitions filed by parents of the children residing there. Construction of the school will be started as soon as the state has approved the plan Gregory said, and the new school is to be holding classes inside of 30 days.

BALLOT REFORM

News of personal and vital interest to California's 3,500,000 registered voters came from Sacramento last week when each house took a definite step toward simplification of the unwieldy California ballot. The senate passed unanimously the non-partisan election bill and the assembly overwhelmingly endorsed the bill to ban primary cross-filing. The senate measure provides for election on a non-partisan basis of all state officers excepting the governor, lieutenant governor and U. S. senators and representatives. The assembly measure would oblige each primary aspirant to limit himself to a single party ticket.

The fact that each of the two bills has the approval of one legislative house is probably of greater interest at the moment to the average voter than the circumstance that the senate views with disfavor the assembly bill and vice versa. Naturally enough, lawmakers are prejudiced in favor of their own creations, but in the interest of good government the central objective of both proposals should be achieved. With both the assembly and senate on solid ground, it is in order for strategists of the two bodies to sit down together, discuss all features of their respective bills, and iron out differences to the end that a compromise measure retaining the major benefits of both be given passage in both houses. B

The impossible complexities of last year's swollen ballot are still strong in the voters' memory. Good government requires deliberate, reflective voting—an utter impossibility with a voting booth document of such proportions that comprehending it is comparable to week of cramming for a college examination. And not far ahead is 1940, when national issues will be superimposed upon state issues for the voter to determine.

CHALLENGE TO CALIFORNIA

From the National Safety Council this week come a serious challenge. Highway accident fatalities have been reduced this year throughout the nation with the exception of the Pacific Coast states, where traffic deaths have increased 5 per cent. Such grim statistics are a direct challenge to California, since the Pacific Coast traffic rolls on this state's highways.

In this exposition year we are prepared to show the rest of the nation that California is the country's "white spot" in business development, scenic beauty, climate allure and industrial achievement. And there is yet time for a determined public opinion to reverse that ugly uptrend in accidents and establish our Golden State as the safety white spot as well.

Conscientious acceptance of personal responsibility must be the watchword of travel safety, by rail or highway, by water or by air. Certainly in the face of the tragic toll of "highway homicides" through auto accidents, the challenge must be met by rigid disciplining of those who will not discipline themselves. And in meeting that challenge, California must lead—not lag.

Folks Who Ought to Be in History

SEEIN' AS HOW THERE ISN'T ANOTHER HUGHES OR CORRIGAN THIS YEAR, WE OUGHT TO ACCLAIM SOME OF OUR UNSUNG HEROES—

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, April 13.—(UP)—The state senate has been casting a collective fishy eye on deficiency appropriations ever since acting Director of Motor Vehicles Frank W. Clark made the strutting statement several weeks ago that the department did not need a requested deficiency of $182,000.

Apparently the situation backfired a bit on Clark for a bill was introduced last week asking $122,000 in addition to a sum of $60,000 previously granted. All the estimates were made by the department of finance on the basis of past experience and necessary expenses.

When Clark first appeared before the senate governmental efficiency committee, he said the money was not needed and that hundreds of unnecessary employees were working there. He added that no one seemed able to tell him why the money was needed.

The next step was a fanfare from Clark's office about 500 employees being discharged in the interests of economy. It took only a cursory check to learn that the dismissals were routine custom at this time of year, following the seasonal rush for license plates. The temporary workers would have been laid off anyway.

The question of dog racing and the attendant pari-mutuel betting is apt to be a troublesome one before the session ends. Breeders, merchants and union representatives are pushing the bill, authored by Andy Pierovich, D., Jackson. Just as hot criticism comes from ministerial unions, religious groups and other similar interests.

When the bill was reported out of the social welfare committee, it happened that few knew about the hearing.

line themselves. And in meeting that challenge, California must lead—not lag.

ing and a hue and cry was raised about star chamber session. As a consequence, the senate sent back to committee, this time the governmental efficiency and economy group.

After the pros and cons were argued, the committee voted unanimously for a do pass recommendation and the bill comes back to the floor and a definite verbal battle.

Pierovich estimates that betting on the hounds would return $20,000,000 or more to the state each biennium from 70 days of racing per year in Los Angeles, San Francisco and the bay counties, with only 14 days in the other counties.

Proponents claim dog racing is "clean sport", is a test of speed and would stimulate labor. Opponents contend that dog racing will jeopardize the entire racing situation in California, create a dangerous moral problem and hurt business.

The city of San Francisco has tried for many years to secure control of its state-owned harbor, conservatively valued at between $30,000,000 and $100,000,000. While the outlook seems brighter this session than ever before, a close battle and probable defeat seems imminent in senate.

The assembly voted for the bill, 49 to 18, after eloquent pleas by members of the San Francisco delegation. Previously, the senate committee on commerce and navigation had failed to approve the bill by a 3 to 2 vote.

San Francisco is shooting the works in its effort to put over the harbor control measure. Biggest single item was a junket to the world's fair for the legislature, numerous attaches, families and the press. Included in the tour of the bay area was a significant cruise past the waterfront's empty piers, effectively showing a lack of business. Port advocates claim that state control has hurt business, that the city could go out and sell its own harbor with salesmen all over the world, much like other large harbors.

Tahoe Region News

Elwyn H. Gregory, Placer County superintendent of schools, was a visitor in the Tahoe schools last Thursday. He was accompanied by M. Brown of the Roseville schools.

A merry Easter egg hunt on the Tahoe Commons was staged by the teachers and pupils of the elementary school on Friday morning. In the afternoon a program was given in the assembly hall with songs and dialogues in the Easter spirit.

The county board of supervisors is expected at Tahoe to inspect the Commons and choose a site for the new jail.

Mrs. Gerda Kvistberg of Sunnyside will leave on Sunday for New York where she will join her husband, Captain John Kvistberg of the S. S. Tulsagas, for a month's vacation trip to the New York fair and eastern points while the ship is in dry dock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wagner of Wagner's Auto Court at Lake Forest were business guests in Reno Wednesday. The Wagner cabins have undergone extensive remodeling this spring, with gas and oil burners installed in every cabin. They are now open for the season.

A special meeting of the newly elected directors of the Tahoe Public Utility District was held on Tuesday to appoint officers and discuss proposed improvements suggested by E. C. Adams of the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, which would result in a possible ten percent reduction in fire insurance rates.

The fine silver trophy won by the Tahoe high school at the Inter-scholastic Ski meet at Cisco on March 18 has arrived and is winning much admiration at the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henry were hosts at a family dinner party on Easter Sunday to honor Mrs. Marie Planett, Celeste Planett and Fred Planett of Verdi.

BOARD INSPECTS TAHOE REGION TO PLAN IMPROVEMENT

TAHOE CITY, April 13.—Members of the board of supervisors accompanied by Fred Percival of a Sacramento culvert and pipe company visited in Tahoe Monday. Plans for improvement to Tahoe roads were made and a site for the new jail was discussed.

It is hoped that a desirable location can be found other than the one planned for Tahoe Commons as it is the wish of the community to beautify the commons into a public park, the first step for which was taken last year when the fine new Community Center with the library post office and club rooms was erected.

Many residents met with the board to discuss local problems. Another desired improvement proposed was repair to the boat landing damaged by fire two years ago. It is also hoped that in the near future tennis courts can be laid out on the commons.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Becholdt were hosts to the party at luncheon which included a number of Tahoe people.

Y SECRETARY AT TAHOE PREPARING FOR TRUCKEE MEET

TAHOE CITY, April 13.—Rudy Abrecht of Marysville, associate secretary of the Mountain District Y. M. C. A. of Northern California visited with the Tahoe branch of the Placer Union high school on Monday accompanied by Rev. G. J. E. Keetch of Truckee, to invite their participation in the Older Boys' Conference to be held in Truckee on April 29.

Schools have been invited from all nearby areas including Nevada City, Loyalton and Grass Valley.

LAKE LEVEL GOES UP SLIGHTLY WITH FAST MELTING SNOW

TAHOE CITY, April 13.—The level of Lake Tahoe on Monday, April 10, was 6226.85 feet, raising .06 of a foot in the past week. There was .14 of an inch precipitation on April 3.

There is only an inch of snow in the pack on the level, but much more than that in isolated places in the hills.

The best skiing of the season is reported on the Mt. Rose slopes at the north end of the lake and as the highway is now open over Mt. Rose many Tahoe ski fans drive over there every day.

Lowest recorded temperature during the past week was 27 degrees and the highest was 67.

Highways are in splendid condition and traffic over the weekend was very heavy.

EASTER SERVICES AT TAHOE ATTRACT BIG ATTENDANCE

TAHOE CITY, April 13.—The Easter services held in the Tahoe Community Center on Sunday morning under the direction of Mrs. Wilma Level, superintendent of the Tahoe branch of the American Sunday School Union, were attended by 55 children and parents. An interesting Easter program of songs and dialogues was presented. The large hall was beautifully decorated with many colorful flowers. Regular Sunday school services will be held throughout the summer at the Community Center at 10 a. m.

Of special interest to the many friends of Miss Catherine Calkins of Yuba Pass and Pete A. Backarich of Tunnel Six was the marriage exchanged at the home of Rev. P. H. Willis in Sparks on April 10 at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Only immediate friends of the couple were in attendance. Both Mr. and Mrs. Backarich are well known in this vicinity and plan to make their home at Summit.

the rites and following the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

Many friends of the popular couple in Norden and vicinity plan a rousing charivari as soon as the Backarichs are "at home."

On an auto tour which will take them through Reno, Las Vegas and way points, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Fredricks of Norden Ski Lodge are en route to Los Angeles where Mrs. Fredricks will meet her father who is a passenger on the S. S. Portland from Germany. They plan to be gone several days.

The slopes in the vicinity of Crow's Peak on Saturday and Sunday were crowded with ski enthusiasts, the days being ideal for the sport.

Mrs. Frank Slater has recently returned from from a visit with her mother in Los Angeles.

Three section men of this vicinity last Saturday afternoon drove off the highway directly across the road from Norden Store, while the driver was busily engaged in waving goodbye to friends. A severe shaking up was the extent of injuries, but a tow car was necessary to get the auto back onto the highway.

Martin Brady, popular chef of the Sierra Ski Club of Norden for the past several seasons, plans to take over the Bungalow, just west of Truckee on April 15. He plans to serve cold drinks and sandwiches of the variety that pleases as he has so successfully done in the past at the Sierra Club. His popularity will soon be known to new friends as well as old who plan to make the place popular.

Several residents of Norden enjoyed lodge night in Truckee.

Frank Eckert, Jesse Tilson and Wayne Libbee of Tunnel Six enjoyed Monday evening in Truckee.

Mrs. Nolan Marion and son Raymond are en route to Medford, Ore., after Easter school vacation spent in Norden. Mrs. Marion plans to return in a few days.

The University of Nevada ski team won this meet over eight other schools entered. Among them were the University of California, Stanford, Placer Junior College, Sacramento Junior College, Nevada and Pomona.

Among local boys entered were James Worden who won first place in the slalom, second in the downhill, fourth in the jumping; Earl Edmunds of Truckee, won third in the jumping and tied for second in the downhill; Jack Starratt won fifth in the jumping and fifth in the downhill.

Father Oberaigner and party of several guests from Chico were the guests at Tahoe Inn Monday.

IMPROVEMENTS AT TAHOE PLANNED BY UTILITY BOARD

TAHOE CITY, April 13.—E. G. Adams, engineer for the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, of San Francisco, was at Tahoe Friday where he met C. W. Vernon, director of the newly created Tahoe Public Utility District and inspected the water system at Tahoe City with a view of ascertaining what form of improvement will be necessary in order to make possible a reduction in fire insurance rates.

Other matters to be discussed at a public meeting in the near future will include the formation of a volunteer fire department and possible purchases of a hose truck and pump. Another planned improvement for Tahoe City, which it is hoped the Placer County board of supervisors will sanction soon, is the repair of the boat landing pier on the Tahoe Commons, which was partly destroyed by fire two years ago.

ACME BREWERY PAYS NEARLY $3,000,000 IN TAX DURING YEAR OF 1938

Nearly three million dollars in taxes were paid during 1938 by just one California company, the Acme Breweries of San Francisco and Los Angeles, according to the announcement made this week by Karl F. Schuster, president.

"Few people realize that one individual company such as ours can contribute so importantly to the general welfare," Schuster stated. "Acme Breweries during the past year paid a total of $2,793,125.80 in taxes."

"The brewing industry as a whole contributes well over one million dollars every day of the year to the tax coffers of federal, state and local governments. It is impressive, I believe, to note that Acme Breweries by itself accounts for almost three days of this astronomical sum of money that yearly goes into the cost of running this government."

"During 1938, Acme Breweries cheerfully expects to pay out even more millions in taxes, because of the constantly increasing popularity of its products which are consistently advertised in leading newspapers."

WITH YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN, THURMAN

(by Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman)

Your assemblyman's first bill passed the senate last Friday with a vote of 25 to 0. The bill, A. B. 2003, will give physically disabled persons an opportunity to take civil service examinations for positions for which they can qualify. It will allow for example, a person who is hard of hearing and who desires to take an examination for a position which their physical condition will not interfere with, the right to have a shorthand reporter assist them at the examination.

It might interest the readers of this newspaper to know the manner in which a bill is introduced and finally passed. Following introduction of the bill in the assembly, for example, the bill is referred to committee. The bill referred to above was placed in the assembly committee on civil service. As the author of the bill it was my duty to appear before this committee and explain the purpose of the bill and endeavor to have the committee give it a do pass recommendation which would place it before the assembly for the vote. Assisted in appearing before this committee by several members of the Society for the Hard of Hearing, I was successful in having the bill given a do pass recommendation and when the bill came up for a vote in the lower house it was given a unanimous vote. After the bill's passage by the assembly it then was sent to the civil service committee of the senate where, as author, I again had to appear and explain its purpose. Again the bill was given unanimous endorsement of the committee. With the bill then before the senate, your assemblyman secured the cooperation of Senators Jerrold L. Seawell and Jesse Mayo in sponsoring the bill on the floor of the upper house where as we stated before, it was given the unanimous vote of the 25 members present last Friday. When the governor signs the bill it then becomes a law.

The above brief sketch, I believe will give you an idea as to how laws are passed. The bill must first be recommended by the committee of the house in which it is introduced and must pass through both committees and both houses.

The past week has been a busy one I can assure you, with numerous bills affecting the smaller towns and communities up for consideration. This coming week the budget hearing will be resumed and it is likely that most of the week will be devoted to that particular bill. In the hearing on the bill two weeks ago the author of the budget bill agreed to eliminate one item in the budget. The item was the $200,000 appropriation for the purpose of establishing a state health insurance plan. This item will be placed in the proposed insurance bill, instead of in the budget. This

Capitol Week

SACRAMENTO, April 13.—(UP)—So-called "loan shark" bills before the legislature drew the attention of Governor Olson this week as he conferred with authors of a score of legislative proposals dealing with usury on means of effectively limiting interest and charges on small loans while guaranteeing lenders a reasonable profit.

The governor did not indicate a prospective top interest rate, but did make it very definite that there must be rigid regulation of the loan business.

Meanwhile, Attorney General Earl Warren endorsed two bills before the senate for consideration fixing maximum interest at 31-2 per cent on the first $100 and 2 1-2 per cent on amounts above that figure.

Climax to an inter-party dispute over recent repeated charges of subversive activities in the state relief administration, the governor dismissed William Plunkert as director of the social welfare division of SRA.

Conservative elements in the democratic party had expressed dissatisfaction over the complaints of radicalism, heard in all parts of the state in the last few weeks, and had threatened to scrap the united front so essential for consideration of the administration's $557,000,000 budget if something was not done.

Olson was confident that he had restored party unity by dismissal of Plunkert, against whom most complaints were directed, but at week's end he was visited by a liberal group headed by Screen Actor Melvyn Douglas, who protested his "yielding to reactionaries."

The governor assured the group he is perfectly able to defend the liberalism of his administration.

Highlighting charges of husbands and wives both holding administrative positions in federal and state agencies, a bill was introduced in the assembly to prohibit hiring by any state agency of a person whose mate is earning $150 or more, either in public or private employment.

The state faced a possible interruption of unemployment benefit payments through exhaustion of federal funds earmarked for administration of the program. The federal social security board notified California that "other arrangements" will have to be made for obtaining funds to administer jobless benefits for May and June.

State officials immediately objected to the injustice of the notice, pointing out that California employers have paid $11,000,000 in payroll taxes to the government, while only half that amount has been drawn out for administration of the act. The state has accumulated a huge $110,000,000 unemployment reserve fund, but this money must be reserved for payment of benefits and none may be diverted to pay overhead.

The senate approved at the end of the week a bill to remove from relief rolls aliens who have come to the United States within the past five years, or who have neglected to become citizens. Purpose of the bill according to its author, Senator Swing is to place responsibility for feeding indigent aliens upon their home was considered a victory for the economy group, who feel that taxes cannot be increased and that the power to tax is the power to destroy. It is possible that this week other items in the budget may be reduced in the interests of economy.

counties or the federal government.

The upper house during the week indulged in an extended questioning of relief officials, finally granting approval for SRA administrator H. Dewey Anderson to continue dole payments at their present level, in effect conceding that additional relief funds will be necessary before June. A $4,050,000 deficiency bill is pending in the assembly.
